Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Fred C. Hubbard was born on November 7, 1903, at Warsaw, Minnesota, to Fred W. and Charlotte Hubbard, one of three children; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Fred married Mabel G. Temple on September 5, 1926, and to that union three children were born, Charles, Frederick and Helen, who in turn presented them with 11 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, and 2 great-great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Fred moved to Colman in 1930, in order to farm in that area, was a dairy farmer from 1934-1945, sold New York Life Insurance from 1945-1947, was superintendent and manager of Lake Poinsett Methodist Camp at Arlington from 1947-1966, worked for the Dakota Conference of the Methodist Church in Huron from 1966-1967, and was administrator of Jenkins Methodist Home in Watertown from 1967-1974; and,

Whereas, Fred was always actively involved in work-related, church, and community endeavors wherever he lived, and now resides at a retirement complex at Watertown, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Fred will observe his 100th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as his friends and relatives gather at an open house on November 8, 2003, to honor him and celebrate his life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a man who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 7, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join his family and friends in wishing him a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
